GREAT ENTHUSIASM!

In pursuance to a call of the Executive Committee a Democratic Convention was held at the Court House on Tuesday last for the purpose of nominating two delegates to the constitutional convention. The convention was called to order by Capt. John S. Dancy, chairman of the Democratic Executive Committee, and on motion, John J. Battle, Esq., was called to the chair and W. P. Williamson appointed Secretary.

All the Townships were found to be represented. Two from each retired to the Petit Jury Room to make nominations and in a few minutes returned with Frederick The Chairman and Secretary were added Philips and James H. Exum, Esqrs., as nominees. The announcement was hailed with much applause.

While other business was being prepared for the convention, Hon. Geo. Howard and H. C. Bourne, Esq., entertained the meeting with speeches replete with political information and eloquence.

BATTLEBORO, N. C., GRANGE, No. 30, June 3rd, 1875.

Editor of the State Agricultural Journal: At our regular meeting in May last a discussion arose as to the practability of hav-ing an Agricultural College in this State, and after considerable discussion, it was unanimously decided that the views of the Battleboro Grange No. 30, P. of H., should be sent to the Journal for publication, in order to get the sentiment of the different Granges We believe that a College with land enough attached could be made almost selfsustaining, if strict econemy should be used, and that the students could perform most of the labor provided this labor should go to the payment of tuition, etc. We all know that the farmers generally since the war have not had the means of giving their children a collegiate education. The Colleges in this State and Virginia charge from $800 to $1000 per annum. Now what farmer of small means is able to pay this amount for his son's education for four years, and perhaps the second year another son, or son's ?

Will the labor injure or retard his course? Will it not beneficial for health to work from one to six hours per day in the field or work shop? for we want mechanical arts taught as well as the cultivation of the soil. We believe that the State of North Carolina will give funds to help start this thing, provided the Grangers will do their duty in subscriwill be able to give entire satisfaction to all bing or giving for this purpose annually of one dollar, which we think no good Granger will object to. And could not the State Grange lay a specific tax annually on members, to be known as school funds, for the purpose of paying necessary expenses of thi College ? We ask every Grange in this State to give their opinion upon this subject, and if anything can be made of it, it is time that we were up and doing. We ask the Masgust. The parties are nearly evenly divid- ters of the different Granges throughout the they will get 200 majority for their Con- ge and communicate through our paper, the By order of this Grange.
